Francis Fernando

SHORT BIO

Francis bought his first income property in 2003 with no formal training or experience in real estate. By 2006 he started a property management business that grew to operate 500 residential units and represented prestigious clients such as Wells Fargo, California National bank & US Bank. He is the author of a trademarked book titled Job + Real Estate = Wealth® that serves as a guide to creating cashflow by understanding the nuts and bolts of income property – all while maintaining a full-time career. Today, after selling his property management business, Francis is a sought-after speaker at real estate investing conferences where he spreads his mantra of real estate investing Buy-Right! Manage-Right! Sell-Right!
